VOL. XXXI, No. 4

B.P.O.E. ~ A FRATERNAL ORGANIZATION

APRIL - 2017

A Message from the Exalted Ruler

The 2017-2018 budget was presented at the 1st meeting in March. After some reworking of the line items by Deidre and Peter Tibbetts, to correct some of the errors, the budget was submitted for a vote at the 2nd Lodge meeting. A motion was made to accept the 2017-2018 budget. Motion was seconded and passed. Thank you to all of those that helped work on the budget. It is a lot of work and the dedication of those that helped is appreciated.

Every year, all volunteer hours and mileage shall be submitted to Grand Lodge by April 1st. The information is compiled throughout the year and a report is provided at year end. To ensure we are credited for all we do; a more streamlined process will be instituted. A "Volunteer Report" will be located outside of Sue's office as well as in the kitchen. This report shall be submitted for all functions, as they occur. The following are examples of functions that need volunteer hours/mileage reported; Wednesday Suppers, Rotary Breakfast, Fish Fry, Meat Bingo, all Lodge meetings (officers and members present), BOD/House Committee, State Meetings, Audit Committee, Copper Cannon, Bike Fest/Family Fun Day, Veteran's Bingo/summer picnic/Christmas Party, and Christmas Baskets. We will post a list of all meetings and functions for the current month and will be asking those in charge of the function/event to supply their reports. Your attention to this important matter is appreciated. Questions, see Sue or Jan.

Congratulations to Michael Jesseman for taking 3rd place at the Annual Cribbage Tournament held March 5th at the Nashua Lodge. Thank you to all you that played and tried to bring the 1st place trophy home to Lodge 876. Maybe next year.

Because of a recent work schedule change, Chris Richard has given his resignation, effective immediately. It is with regret he will be unable to complete the position of Loyal Knight or begin his new position as Leading Knight. Work comes first. Nominations were held at the Lodge Meeting on March 20th. Frank Mello was nominated and voted in as Leading Knight 2017-2018. Congratulations Frank. Frank resigned his 4 Year Trustee position and this position is now open. Nominations for 4 Year Trustee will be held April 3rd. Anyone interested in becoming a Trustee, please make your intentions known and come to the 1st meeting in April.

Initiation was held March 26th at 10am with three new members coming in. Please welcome our new members. Pictured below are the officers and newly initiated members, Chelsea Barrett, William Lutz and Kenyon Noddin.

To keep all our members informed; we will be sending the newsletter out again to all Elks members that reside in NH. If you know of anyone living outside of NH that would like a newsletter mailed to them; please bring it to our attention.

Don't forget Member Appreciation and Installation is on April 1st. Installation is at 4:30pm, during which time the bar will be closed. Immediately following we will have half-priced drink and dinner at 6pm. Officer of the Year, Elk of the Year, and Citizen of the Year recognition awards will be presented during dinner. Hope to see you there.

A shout out goes to Susan Ayers for doing a fantastic job as the new Lodge Secretary. She accepted this position at the busiest time of year for Lodge Secretaries. She has embraced the duties and responsibilities of secretary. She has been working very hard to provide members with their new membership cards for 2017-2018 in a timely manner. As well, she has sent out all delinquent dues notices and has worked diligently to reduce this number. This time of year, many year-end reports are due by Grand Lodge. Sue has researched and completed these reports and sent them off to Grand Lodge. It is a big job and I would like to thank her for her hard work and jumping in with both feet. Deidre, Lodge Treasurer has been a big help in Sue's transition period. Thank you both for your hard work.

As always, please check out our website and calendar of events enclosed in the newsletter.

Fraternally yours,
Janice Dignan,
Exalted Ruler

MANAGER'S CORNER

Congratulations to all the Officers being installed on April 1st, good luck with the upcoming year. We will be having our regular events this month, Meat Raffle on April 21st, Karaoke on April 8th, and Fish Fry on April 28th. If anyone would like to help out at any event it would be greatly appreciated, contact me for more information. Come in to the lodge anytime and have a good time, we are open 7 days a week. Special thank you to Tricia Roy for shopping for the food for the last meat raffle and the upcoming one. Come in play to see what she surprises us with this month.
